R. P. W. GARNETT DIES OF PARALYSIS

Veteran of Civil War Expires at Age of 88

VICTIM OF PARALYSIS

Member of Old and Distinguished Family—For Many Years Official in U. S. Court Here.

Robert P. W. Garnett, eighty-eight years old, a distinguished Confederate veteran, for many years crier in the United States court here, died at 10 o'clock last night at his residence, 305 Queen street. His death was due to paralysis with which he was stricken several days ago. For many months past Mr. Garnett had been in failing health.

The deceased was a son of the late Muscoe Garnett and was born September 19, 1833, in Essex county, Va. He received his education at Mt. St. Mary's, Emmitsburg, Md., and the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va., and was of one of the most distinguished families in the state of Virginia, beng a brother of the late Dr. R. Y. P. Garnett, a famous surgeon in his time.

During the civil war Mr. Garnett served with distinction in Stuart's Cavalry and later was with the Essex Cavalry, Ninth Virginia Regiment. He was captured at Pittsylvania.

For seventeen years he served in the navy as a paymaster's clerk and visited almost every port in the world while in the navy. He was an interesting story teller and entertained many by his experiences during his travels in the navy. For many years prior to being crier in the United States Court he was U. S. Commissioner here.

Surviving him are two nieces, Miss Annie Garnett, of New York, and Miss Maria Garnett, of Washington.

The body of Mr. Garnett was taken to Wheatley's mortuary chapel and prepared for burial. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Chamber Of Commerce

Plans Luncheon to Captain W. S. Miller, U. S. N.

The Chamber of Commerce is making plans to hold a luncheon in their auditorium on Monday, January 24th, 1921, at 1:30 p. m., in honor of Captain W. S. Miller, U. S. N., and to Captain E. B. Larimer, U. S. N., who succeeds him.

Captain Miller who has been the Commandant at the U. S. Naval Torpedo Station for some time past has been detached from duty at this station and ordered elsewhere. Captain Miller during his residence here has endeared himself to a host of friends by his charm of manner and cordiality and while we regret to see him leave we trust that all success and happiness will attend him in years to come, wherever his duty may find him. For his successor we assure him of our hearty co-operation and trust that his duty while in our city may be both pleasant and satisfactory.

Held For Investigation

One of Trio of Colored Men Taken Was Gun Toter

Three young colored men giving the names of John Jackson, 481 C street, southwest; Thomas Jackson, 459 L street, southwest and Ben Mudd, 459 G street, southwest, all of Washington, were arrested this afternoon by Policemen Durrer and Lawrence Padgett. The men were riding bicycles and when searched at police headquarters the police say they found a pistol on the man giving the name of Ben Mudd. A Swiss watch was found on one of the men. They are held for investigation and a charge of carrying a concealed weapon will be lodged against Mudd. The men told the police that they came to this city in search of employment.

FISH DAY TOMORROW

Potomac shad, first of season, roe and buck shad, large white perch, rockfish, steak halibut, mackerel, Jersey trout, Lynnhaven Bay and Potomac oysters. SANITARY FISH MARKET, City Market, Phone 735. 17-1c.

Trolley Increase Notes

Join the Mount Vernon division Commuters' Association and protect your own interest.

Attend the big mass meeting to be held tomorrow night in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce

Everybody plug for a cheaper car fare instead of what the Washington-Virginia Railway Company wants you to pay.

Put some punch in the meeting by attending; don't leave it to the other fellow. If all join hands we are sure to win.

If you fail on this fight it is due to your negligence.

Everybody is interested in stopping the trolley magnates from getting 48 cents for a round trip to Washington. Don't be fooled, you are needed at this meeting.

Let the Washington-Virginia Railway Company officials see that they are not running Alexandria by your presence at the meeting tomorrow night. Cancel all dates and attend by all means.

Keep red hot after the railway company and you win. Don't go to sleep on the job. Now is the time.

The Washington-Virginia Railway Company needs pitiless publicity to bring them to their senses and the Gazette is going into this fight to a finish. We are here, till the last ditch.

The Washington-Virginia Railway Co., needs a final knockout blow on fares and this could be administered by the citizens of Alexandria. One good blow will make them realize they can no longer trifle with the citizens.

If you listen to the suave arguments put up by the representatives of the road you will be led to believe that the fare to Washington ought to be a dollar. Don't be fooled.

XAVERIAN SCHOOL NOTES

Appropriate exercises were held at the school on Tuesday in honor of General Robert E. Lee, different incidents in his noble life, were written by the pupils, and well rendered.

Mid-year examinations will begin at the school the last week of the month.

Mr. David Healey, of Newport, R. I., was a guest at the school over Sunday.

It is requested that all visitors call after class hours, namely nine to twelve, and one to three, as such vsitors otherwse impede the progress of the pupils.

SPECIAL PICTURES TO BE SHOWN BY Y. M. C. A.

A feature of the Y. M. A., community social at the Westminster building Saturday evening will be some special movies furnished by the Treasury Department of the Government for thrift week. The special films will be shown in connection with the others that are planned for the occasion.

The same films will be shown at the special matinee for children at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and the pictures will be free both afternoon and evening. The pictures have become a popular feature of the community affairs and both the children and young people have expressed their pleasure at the innovation.

The Y. M. C. A., is just in receipt of a new screen that is a part of the movie outfit presented to the Association and it will be used for the first time Saturday afternoon and evening. The screen is the last word in the projectoscope art and is made of gold fibre and will enable the association to practically show pictures in day light.

SEEK TO ENJOIN U. S. SHIPPING BOARD

Judge Waddill Fixes Case of V. S. B. C., Against Board For Feb. 9.

CALLED IN NORFOLK

Alexandria Company in Petition Alleges Shipping Board Officials are Interfering With Their Vessels

The United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation was yesterday ordered by Judge Edmund Waddill in the U. S. Court at Norfolk, to show cause February 5, why it should not be enjoined and restrained from interfering with the operation of the vessels built in Alexandria, by the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation.

There is now pending in Judge Waddill's court a suit instituted by the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation against the Fleet Corporation for an accounting growing out of its contract to build these vessels and the petition seeking an order for the Fleet Corporation to show cause why it should not be enjoined, presented to Judge Waddill at Norfolk by the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation's attorney, W. W. Scott, states that the vessels built here are about to engage in the coastwise trade and that the Fleet Corporation officials are interfering with the operation of the vessels in that trade and desire that they be laid up for want of cargoes.

At the hearing in Norfolk yesterday the Fleet Corporation was represented by United States District Attorney D. Lawrence Groner, and the order requiring the Fleet Corporation to show cause was granted by Judge Waddill and filed with Deputy Clerk W. P. Woolls in this city.

Dance For Charity

300 Couples Attend Elks' Affair—Enjoy Buffet Supper

Approximately 300 couples last night attended the dance given by Alexandria Lodge of Elks' to raise money for its charity fund. Dancing was indulged in till midnight.

At 10:45 o'clock the guests repaired to the rathskeller where a delightful buffet supper was served. The affair was one of the most successful given thus far this season by the "Best People on Earth," and plans are already being mapped out by the entertainment committee for another dance which probably will be given early in February.

City Council Will Fight Trolley Co's., Fare Raise

Corporation Attorney Authorized To Cooperate With All Other Attorneys In Combating Proposition To Make People Pay More Money

COMMUTERS' SIDE IS GIVEN

Statement Made Before Joint Session by Ashby Bladen He Says Company Gained 102 Per Cent in Sale of 25 Trip Book of Tickets During Past Year—Councilman Baggett Says Company Uses Alexandria as a Dumping Ground—President Burke Favors Commuters In Their Fight.

The city council last night unanimously voted to enter the fight to be waged against the Washington-Virginia trolley line to prevent that company putting into operation the proposed increase in its rates on February 13.

After discussing the question before a joint meeting a resolution was adopted instructing the corporation attorney to act jointly with all other attorneys engaged in the fight against the increased rates on the Washington-Virginia Railway and authorizing him to use any and all legal means for the city of Alexandria to prevent an increase in rates on this road. It is further provided that the expenses of the corporation attorney be provided for by the city council.

Previous to the joint session President Burke, of common council, explained that the meeting had been called at the instance of a good many citizens to protest against the increased fares on the Washington-Virginia Railway Company which he said if it went through would prove very disastrous to the city and it would retard the growth of the city. Afterward the board of aldermen were invited into joint session and following a recitation of the commuters' side of the case by Ashby Bladen, a committee composed of Aldermen Wilkins and Councilman Baggett was named to draft the resolution which afterward was adopted by each board.

Alderman Marbury, president of the board of aldermen, presided over the joint session and explained the purpose of the meeting and called on anyone present desiring to make a statement to take the floor.

On behalf of the Commuters' Association Ashby Bladen took the floor and made a clean cut statement of facts regarding the actions of the electric railway company during the past few years up to the present time. In opening his remarks he declared those who are domiciled in this city do not realize the magnitude of the proposition of the railway company.

This is the first time the commuters have come to council he said. The speaker recited of hiw in 1919 teh railway company obtained an increase in fare from the Interstate Commerce Commission. Following that he said the commuters settled down and the next thing they knew was that the railway company wanted to increase the price of the twenty five trip ticket. The commuters he said protested and finally the company withdrew their application.

Mr. Bladen declared that if their increase carries it will cause inestimable damage to the city of Alexandria. The proposed new tariff he said carries away the best feature the 25 trip ticket. This he said is the third time the railway company during the past two years has come back on the commuters.

By the constant juggling of finances on the part of the railway company, the company and the commuters he said have come to the parting of the ways. Some figures regarding the sale of monthly books and twenty-five trip books were given by Mr. Bladen. In 1920 he said 850 monthly books were sold each month and the sale of twenty-five trip tickets, the last-named which they desire to take off, increased 102 per cent and they sold 11,600 a month.

The speaker told of their ramifications affecting every line in the city should the trolley company win out in this fight, and he said, if the rate is granted it will be a serious blow not only to the commuters but to the city of Alexandria business interests of the city.

An investigation among 100 women employed at the Bureau of Engraving disclosed that the majority purchased the twenty-five trip tickets because they claimed their earnings were so meager that they could not afford to purchase the monthly ticket.

Continuing Mr. Bladen said: "We have never been convinced that the railroad company is not capitalized beyond all reason. The company he said must be dominated by financiers and they ask the people to pay what they have been juggling with. Concluding Mr. Bladen urged the support of city council.

Councilman Baggett said the city council feels it the duty of its members to give its moral support in the fight to be waged against the railway company. He told of the efforts the city had to make to collect $4,000 from the railway company which cost the city of Alexandria $400 and of how the railway company promised to put a modern station and waiting room at the head of King street for the benefit of strangers, and erecting wires and poles on Royal street and had failed to do so. The company he added only used Alexandria for a dumping ground.

President Burke said he agreed thoroughly with Councilman Baggett and he added that it is absolutely necessary that council give the commuters all the help it can.

Continuing, Mr. Burke said; "It is no concern of our people who pay fare and a pretty good fare, to pay up for losses, bad losses and mismanagement and I hope the citizens will keep right behind them. I think the railway company is getting pretty good price for their service. It is of vital importance to us. It is our duty to do everything we can to further the interests of the people."

Mr. Burke than moved that committee be appointed to draw up a resolution to employ the corporation attorney to look out for the city's interests. Messrs. Baggett and Wilkins were then named on the committee.

Attending the meeting were Councilmen Ticer, Matter, Wattles, Downham, McCaffrey, Drury, Sullivan, Baggett, Kaufmann, Fletcher, Lawler and President Burke.

Present from the board of aldermen were Aldermen Ballenger, Marbury, Batcheller, Wilkins and Anderson.

Dance Tonight

One of the most important events of the week from an entertainment standpoint, as well as being a charity affair, is the dance tonight in the Elks' Auditorium for the benefit of the Near East Relief.

Music will be by McWilliams' orchestra, and dancing will be from 9 to 12. No refreshments will be served. The nature of the organization for which the dance will be given, Near East Relief, precludes refreshments, and expenses are being kept to a minimum, hoping to realize a large sum for this object, as Alexandria has been called upon to feed sixty orphans.

Sec. Wilson To Speak

Labor Head to Make Address Monday Night at Y. P. B., Under Auspices of Cameron Club

The meeting to be held Monday night, January 24, at the Young People's Building under the auspices of the Cameron Club promises to be an extremely successful affair.

Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson is considered a very able speaker and he will handle one of the most important subjects of the day. The club world is steadily co-operating with the government in many phases of its Department of Labor, especially in the matter of the U. S. Employment Bureau and the government is appreciative and since the Secretary of Labor in the midst of his many pressing engagements, will address us, some of the most prominent club women nearby, will be present on this occasion and occupy seats on the platform.

From Washington will come Mrs. Howard Hodgkins, Miss Williamson, Mrs. Grace Porter Hopkins and Mrs. O. I. Woodley, all of them National Club women, and Mrs. Henry Lockwood of Arlington County, vice president of all the clubs of Northern Virginia, will bring a group of nearby club presidents.

Labor is something that touches us all and the Cameron Club has endeavored to reach every representative group of men in the city.

To Fight W. Va. Line

Citizens' Association Takes Action at Meeting Last Night

The Citizens' Association at their meeting in Pythian Temple, 319 Cameron street, last night took up the proposition of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company to boost its fares between Alexandria and Washington and also at the various stations between this city, Washington and Mount Vernon.

A committee composed of C. A. Bladen, L. P. Woodward and W. D. Jennier was named to co-operate with committees from other associations in the city that will enter the fight to be waged against the trolley company.

C. A. Bladen then gave the association information he had collected in connection with the proposed increase and the association thanked Mr. Bladen and expressed hope that everyone will attend the big mass meeting in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow night.

A committee composed of D. R. Stansbury, T. C. Howard and F. J. Paff appeared before the association and discussed the proposed increase in fare. They represented the Mount Vernon division Commuters' Association.

The health committee of the association submitted a report of the work performed by the health department July 1920 to December 1920.

The street committee reported that they had been given assurance that the sidewalks leading to the cemeteries in the southeastern section of the city would be improved.

The association decided to hold its next regular meeting February 2.

VETERANS HONOR GEN. ROBT. E. LEE

Eloquent Tributes Paid by Noted Speakers at Banquet

PRAISE FOR WOMEN

Representatives Stedman and Moore and Judge S. G. Brent Respond to Toasts.

Glowing tributes to the matchless leader, Robert E. Lee, to the men who fought under him and to the women of the Confederacy and the sons of the Confederate soldiers were paid in eloquent addresses made last night by distinguished speakers at the annual banquet of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans held in Lee Camp Hall in observance of Gen. Lee's birthday. Most of the old veterans attending wore their treasured gray uniforms and the prettily decorated tables, pretty dresses worn by the daughters of the Confederacy serving the banquet all lent color to the occasion. The banquet was greatly enjoyed and it was 10:30 o'clock when the assemblage said "Good Night." About 100 attended, every seat being occupied.

Representative Charles M. Stedman, of North Carolina, the first speaker of the evening took as his subect, "Gen. Robert E. Lee." The name of Gen. Robert E. Lee he declared is one that will never die. Continuing he, said, "Gen. Robert E. Lee and the Confederate soldier symbolizes to you one great principle of supreme duty."

Lee, he said, scorned money and was noted for his strict observance of every promise made. He challenged and won the admiration of the world He was actuated by a supreme sense of duty and not elated by either success or disaster.

At the close of hostilities said the speaker, the same moral courage gave the Confederates the strength to sustain themselves and he told of the work accomplished by them at the close of the conflict. Commemorative words he declared, are not needed to perpetuate the name of the Confederate soldier. The speaker predicted that the day will come when the constitution will be placed in jeopardy at which time the oppressed will rise up and call you blessed.

Representative R. Walton Moore, who took for his subect, "The Confederate Soldier," paid a glowing tribute to Representative Stedman whom he declared is the only Confederate veteran left in the House of Representatives. Major Stedman is always ready he said, when a question arises about the Confederacy in Congress, and only a little while ago had occasion to take up a challenge made against the Confederacy.

Mr. Moore took up the question of right of the states to secede from the union and upheld them from a legal angle, giving proof of the locality of their so doing. The world he said will declare that the Confederates were defeated in a cause that was a constitutional right.

Speaking of the activity of the Confederates at the outbreak of hostilities, Mr. Moore asserted that no people ever so quickly prepared for war as did the Confederates. He thought it was wonderful statesman-

LAST NIGHT'S BANQUET To listen to the same voice that replied to its general on a desperate Southern battlefield at a critical moment of conflict: "Sir, I am ready to charge!" To see the eye light up with the same ardor that it flashed amidst the roar of cannon or the thunder of the charge—this was, indeed, thrilling. And thus Major Charles M. Stedman, of North Carolina, thrilled and moved his hearers last night.

To listen to the merciless logic of that master of argument and debate, Hon. R. Walton Moore, as he flayed the opponents of the South's interpretation of the Constitution and the southern doctrine of States Rights, was to experience keen pride in our able defender of the Confederacy.

To hearken to the moving eloquence of Judge Samuel G. Brent, as he paid tribute to the chivalry of the south and the beauty and devotion of its noble women, was a memorable treat.

To sit at the feast spread by the United Daughters of the Confederacy was at once to partake of the pleasures of the epicure and recall fond memories of the Old South.

The invocation of Rev. J. W. Duffey was fervent and touching. The reading of Lee's Farewell Address to his soldiers, by Adjutant Warfield, was listened to in reverent silence.

The banquet given by R. E. Lee Camp, C. V., last night was a conspicuous success in every phase.

GAZETTE'S FOOD PAGE FRIDAYS. We call attention today to a new feature to be inaugurated by the GAZETTE, which is the printing each Friday on the Food Page of original cooking recipes furnished by the ladies of Alexandria. The GAZETTE is sure that the reputation enjoyed abroad by Alexandria hostesses for rare dishes and delicacies of the table will be fully sustained. Several of its readers have urged it to adopt this plan, and it now invites the ladies of Alexandria to send in their favorite recipes and generously permit the world at large to share their own knowledge of how to prepare those dainties for which they are justly famous. Receipts should be sent to Mrs. Charles M. Shepperson, editor woman's department, Gazette Office.

N. B. We cannot refrain from asking the public's attention to the very timely and skilful advertisement run in our pages today by several of our merchants in what might be termed a "Buy Now" campaign. The logic of the argument seems unanswerable.

ANSWER THESE!

The GAZETTE is a newspaper, and as such its duty is to give the news impartially to its readers on all sides of any question. It has assured the Washington-Virginia Railway Company that its news columns were open to them, and they have promised to make a statement to our readers, which will appear tomorrow afternoon. We shall await this with much interest. In the meantime we have a few interrogatories to propound, the answers to which we shall await with equal, if not greater interest.

1. What is the present book-value of the Washington-Virginia Railway Co's. property?
2. What was the amount of the capital stock, and what was the bonded indebtedness when the present owners took the property over from the original builders?
3. To what amount was the capital stock and the bonded indebtedness increased upon said transfer?
4. To what amounts and at what times have the capital stock and the bonded indebtedness been increased since the original franchise to the Railway Company?
5. To whom and for what consideration has the stock of the company been issued, preferred and common, since the original franchise?
6. To whom and for what consideration have the bonds been sold? Give dates names and amounts of each issue?
7. What was the original cost of the railroad, prior to the first transfer, and what amounts have been expended since and for what purposes?
8. Please state the total earnings of the company for the years 1917, 1918 and 1919, together with the operating expense, including taxes and interest on all obligations, bonded and otherwise. What was the per cent of increase in gross earnings for 1917, 1918 and 1919?

Upon the receipt of the statement to be made by the Railway Company tomorrow and the answers to above interrogatories, the GAZETTE will present in these columns its analysis and further comment.

SPORTS

A double header is on for tomorrow night at the Alexandria High School gym, when the strong team of Fredericksburg High School meets the Alexandria lads and the Destroyers A. C. clashes with the second team of Alexandria High. These should prove the best two games played here this season, for both teams have been going at top speed. The first game starts at 7 o'clock, the second at 8. Some game, let's go. Admission, 25c to see both games.

BERWICK REVIVES SABBATH WITH PURITANICAL RIGORS

Berwick, Pa., Jan. 20.—On reformbent, Berwick Council has determined, and so ordered, that ye olde puritanical Sabbath shall be resurrected.

All modern "Satanical" devices, unknown in the balmy days of Blue laws when listening to a three hour sermon was as thrilling as a modern movie are now taboo.

No more can the youth of the Susquehanna town partake of ice cream and soda; no more can their fathers buy cigars and no more can the "Kids" enjoy the Sunday "funnies." It's all outlawed.

Hear, ye motorist! No more gasoline will be sold Sunday and the long bridge to Nescopeck will be worn thin with autos skipping to the nearest supply station for fuel.

City Council has willed it, and Chief of Police Bason has received orders to clamp on the lid.

DEMPSEY BOUT OFF, PROMOTER INSISTS

New York, Jan. 20.—The Dempsey-Carpentier bout is definitely off, William A. Brady, who with O. B. Cochran and Tex Rickard, promoted the match, declared last night.

He confirmed newspaper reports that the match had been called off because of failures of the principals to post forfeits as required in the articles.

Brady declared that in making the definite announcement that the bout is off, he was speaking as American representative of Cochran as well as in his own name. "So far as Cochran and I are concerned the deal is off," Brady said.

HOUSE DECIDES ON A LIMIT OF 435 MEMBERS

Washington, Jan. 20.—At the end of the most turbulent session of the present Congress the House late yesterday adopted the Reapportionment bill, with an amendment limiting its membership for the next 10 years to the present total of 435.

The fight to prevent increase to 483, as provided in the Siegel bill, was won several hours earlier, however, when the House, sitting in committee of the whole, refused to postpone consideration of the whole question of redistricting and then voted 138 to 77—to keep the present maximum. It was after long parliamentary wrangling that the bill was brought before the House itself for a final showdown. The 435 amendment finally was agreed to by a vote of 267 to 76, and the measure made ready for Senate concurrence.

The amendment to hold the House at present size was offered by Representative Bathour, of California, one of the members of the Census Committee signing a minority report.

'PEEPERS' AND 'HUGGERS' PESTER FAIR CO-EDS

Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 20.—Frightened by a series of depredations by sneak thieves, "Peeping Toms," and "Jack the Huggers," co-eds of Syracuse University have appealed to the police to halt the nuisance.

Within the past twenty-four hours three men have been reported prowling around Sorority houses. In a number of cases rooms of girls have been ransacked and money and trinkets taken.

A few weeks ago the entire hill section was terrorized by a "Jack the Hugger," who grabbed a number of girls in the vicinity of the campus.

Worchester, Mass., Troops Aid After $1,500,000 Fire

Worchester, Mass., Jan. 20.—The origin of the fires that caused more than $1,500,000 property damage in the business district of this city yesterday had not been determined last night. While militia companies were held at the armories in readiness for assistance to the exhausted firemen in case of new fires, State police searched the ruins for clues.

The flames started in the Knowles Building, at Main and Chatham Streets, and shortly afterward a building on North Foster Street, more than three-quarters of a mile away, was discovered ablaze. Efforts were made last night to determine whether this second fire was started by burning embers from the first, and numerous witnesses were examined in the hope of learning how the blaze in the Knowles Building had gained such headway before discovery.

There were no fatalities or serious injuries, but several firemen were slightly hurt.

This city was spotted by fires early yesterday. Two business buildings on Main Street, heavily stocked with merchandise, were burned out a few blocks south of City Hall, a score of tenement structures were overrun by sparks that caused roof blazes, and guests at the Bancroft and New Park Hotels, situated between the business and the tenement district, prepared to follow the tenement dwellers into the zero temperature of the streets.

Wants "Hanging Juries" For All Liquor Cases

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 20.—Judges here are looking for jurors who will vote for conviction in liquor violation cases.

They say foes of the Volstead law now invariably ask for jury trials, realizing that at least one or more of the jurors can be relied upon to hold out for acquittal regardless of how flagrant the violation has been proved to be.

Hoop-la

Think of it, new baked bread, cakes, cookies and pies. You can just smell them. Think of the times you robbed the cookie jar. Think what it means to know that you have a range that will give you a positive one-third to one-half fuel saving.

Cole's Sanitary Down Draft Range

It is equipped with

of combustion. This gives you a saving of one-third to one-half on your fuel. Burns the fuel gases that other makes of ranges waste and carries a broad sheet of clean flame under all six lids and entirely around the oven. This means even cooking and baking results. Even steady heat—not a flashy wasteful one. Holds fire over night. Gas tight—rust proof vitreous enameled linings. This range will outlast any range on the market and will pay for itself in fuel saved. Furnished in blue or gray enamel or plain black. A beauty from start to finish.

NORFOLK AND WESTERN LAYS OFF 2,000 EMPLOYES

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 20.—Approximately 2,000 employes of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company will be laid off next Saturday, according to information given out at the general offices of the company here yesterday morning. The cut is effective over the entire system, and affects practically all shop departments. About 900 men will be laid off in Roanoke.

During the past three or four months the company has laid off approximately 1,500 employes, it was stated at the company's offices, in addition to the cut effective Saturday, which will bring the total number of men laid off up to about 3,500.

Some of the employes to be laid of next Saturday may be taken back the first of the month if business permits, officials of the company said

In speaking of the reduction, President N. D. Maher said it was made necessary by a decrease in the company's business, which he declared, had been "very serious since January 1."

100 DROWNED; 200 HURT; 1,000 HOMELESS IN MEXICO

Mexico City, Jan. 20.—More than 1,0 persons were drowned and mo than 200 others were injured in the disaster yesterday at Pachua, when two dams above the city broke and torrents of water swept through the lower section of this mining center, according to the latest reports. A thousand persons were rendered homeless.

Several mines were flooded and it it is believed the death list will be added to considerably when the shafts are cleared. The dams held back water used in the chemical treatment of ores, and many of the deaths were due to the victims being poisoned by swallowing this water.

A singular feature of the disaster was that the two dams broke simultaneously. The reason for this has not been discovered.

ship that did it and he added, "There was never gotten together a more efficient fighting force than the Confederate soldier. No one nation has ever produced such men as Lee and Stonewall Jackson."

Mr. Moore paid a warm tribute to the women of the Confederacy. The women he declared were equal to the men during the war and he added they have been equal to them ever since. It gave him great pleasure he said to know that the building the Confederates now occupy represents the loyalty of the Alexandria women to the old Confederate soldier and he said he hoped the time would never pass when they failed to hold such celebrations.

Judge Samuel G. Brent, of this city, who responded to the toast "Sons of Confederate Veterans" said he hoped the time would never come when the Confederate soldier will not be revered and respected. The speaker said he believed that there is no country in the world that raised a force equal to the force of the Confederacy in such a short space of time. A warm tribute to the valor of the women of the Confederacy for the part they played during the four years of the conflict was given by Judge Brent. Concluding the speaker said: "The young men of the south will do everything they can to perpetuate the memory of the Confederate soldier."

Commander John R. Zimmerman presided over the banquet and Gen. Lee's farewell address was read by Adutant Edgar Warfield and invocation was pronounced by Rev. Dr. J. W. Duffey, of Rockville, Md., chaplain of the local camp.

TAKE CHASCO-VIN FOR THAT RUN-DOWN CONDITION
Makes Rich Red Blood—Produces Strength and Stops Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis, Aids Sleep and Digestion—Read What Chasco-Vin Users Say.
George Bomberger a mechanic of Lebanon, Pa., writes: "I was troubled with bronchitis for several months and along with overwork it broke me all up. My case was called General Debility. After doctoring a long while I read about Chasco-Vin and I thank the day that I started to take it. The bronchial trouble is all gone and my full red face indicates my new rich red blood. It was just what I needed"
Israel Miller, Camden, N. J., wrote: "I take pleasure in recommending Chasco-Vin because it brought me out of a series of colds and bronchial trouble. The very first bottle did the trick although I took four bottles as I told. I feel fine now and Chasco-Vin did the work."
Chasco-Vin the strength creating tonic is a wonderful reconstructive and body building tonic for young and old.

Give the Kiddies the Bread to Eat that Supplies the Nourishment They Need.
Back to the bakery---that's the place to find out what sort of Bread you are getting. You are welcome at the Corby Bakery at any time. And you will be interested at what you see there.
CORBY BREAD is made of the best ingredients that can be procured. That insures purity as well as nutrition. But there is another feature that goes to make CORBY BREAD the very SUPERIOR BREAD IT IS---the patented process by which the doughs are mixed. A process which commands every particle of gluten and therefore adds immensely to the nourishing quality of CORBY BREAD.
There is still another factor---unusual quantities of rich milk are elements of the Corby formulas---adding more nourishment.
It is plain to be seen why CORBY BREAD is 100 Percent pure: 100 Percent nourishing.

TERROR GRIPS PEOPLE OF CORK

Cork, Jan. 20.—Terror, equally as intense as that which prevailed before martial law was enforced, grips people of Cork. The Black and Tans and Auxiliaries, who were withdrawn from the city after recent fires, now are more in evidence than ever, and since Saturday and Sunday nights, when the streets of the city were swept by bullets, the inhabitants have been literally in fear and trembling.

"No woman can think of sleeping," said the wife of a prominent citizen today

The warning of Major General Sir Edward Strickland, the military commander, that drastic measures would follow assassinations of members of the crown forces has served to increase the general feeling of uneasiness.

Belfast, Jan. 20.—David Kent, Sinn Fein member of the House of Commons for the East division of Cork, was arrested yesterday. He makes the seventeenth Sinn Fein member of the British Parliament now in jail.

Six members of the Irish Republican Parliament are now in the United States, two are on the Continent and two have died, while one, Diarmid Lynch, has resigned.

Dublin, Jan. 20.—Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization, who was arrested in his home here on the morning of November 26, will be court-martialed if the present plans of the authorities are carried out. The date of the court-martial, however, has not yet been set.

London, Jan. 20.—Four civilians were killed and seven "Black and Tan" auxiliary policemen were wounded in a fight in County Galway, Ireland, according to reports received here today. The fight ensued when a Black and Tan patrol was ambushed near the city of Galway

RUSH TO HARVEST ICE ON DELAWARE RIVER

Frenchtown, N. J., Jan. 20.—First blasts of real winter carried joy to the heart of the ice men of the upper Delaware valley and lake region where the chief natural supply of the frozen product is harvested for the summer consumption of New York and Philadelphia districts. If Jack Frost stays on the job three days more most of the big ice plants will begin storing foot thick blocks

The ice men are taking no chances this year. Fearing another shift in the weather and south winds that would bring a thaw, they will begin to cut ice just as soon as conditions warrant. They have begun recruiting gangs of men in order to rush the harvesting. The ice already is from six to eight inches thick.

WILLS ACTRESS WEALTH; ONLY $100 TO D. C. WIFE

New York, Jan. 20.—The bulk of the estate of the late Jos. J. Ryan, son of Thomas Fortune Ryan, is left to Dorothy Lucille Whiteford, of this city, an actress, 22 years old, and described as Ryan's only and "dear" friend. Miss Whiteford will get about $60,000, of the total estate, which is valued at $90,000.

Ryan left only $100 to his widow, Nannie Morse Ryan, formerly of Washington, D. C., explaining that "ample provision had been made for her support during her lifetime by a separation agreement entered into between us dated 6th May, 1915."

Miss Whiteford for a year played in New York in "The Royal Vagabond."

VOLIVA SAYS SATAN WILL FLOAT DRINKERS IN WINE

Zion, Ill., Jan. 19.—Residents of Zion were given a new light on the terrors of the infernal regions yesterday, when Overseer Wilbur Glenn Voliva issued advance sheets on "Handbook and guide to hell," based on what he termed helligrams he said he recently had received.

"Every sinner is going to be punished with an overdose of his own sin,' Voliva declared. "A tobacco-smoker will be locked up in a den full of tobacco smoke. A chewer will be immersed to his neck in a vat of tobacco juice. A drinker will pass his term of purification in a natatorium filled with beer, wine and whisky."

"SHIMMY" AND "TODDLE" BARRED BY SCHOOL HEAD

Chicago, Jan. 20.—The "shimmy" and the "toddle" are not proper dances for school entertainments, Superintendent Peter A. Mortensen ruled yesterday in barring them from the community centre activities of the Brentano Public School, where neighborhood young people had been meeting for social events.

Members of the floor committee of teachers at the community centre differed in their opinions as to the propriety of the dances, it is said, resulting in the edict, closing the school to community activities.

"The dances that resulted in yesterday's order probably would be considered all right on the stage or public dance floors, but in the schools we must maintain a high standard in all entertainments," Superintendent Mortensen said.

TAX BRIBER KILLS HIMSELF.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Albert I. Lauer, the first man convicted on income tax banking charges in the Chicago Federal court, committed suicide yesterday. Lauer, who was 43 years old, was secretary of the Briggs and Lurivas Company, a $1,000,000 iron and steel wrecking and salvaging corporation.

Testimony was that he had paid a Federal agent $15,000 and promised him as much more if a discrepancy of $78,000 in the income tax records of the company were not exposed.

The conviction was returned November 12, but sentence was suspended pending trial of a case in which Lauer and four other officers of the concern were indicted on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government of income taxes.

Dying in Poverty His Body Will Lie in a $10,000 Tomb.

Newark, N. J., Jan 20.—The body of Samuel Collins, 75, who died virtually penniless in a hospital here last Wednesday from pneumonia, will be placed in a $10,000 mausoleum at Stroudsburg, Pa., which he built for himself and members of his family years ago, it became known yesterday.

Frederick Keer, a local art dealer, said yesterday that Mr. Collins formerly was a leading art dealer and broker, and at one time had been engaged by J. P. Morgan to collect works of art. During his career Mr. Collins handled art transactions involving nearly five million dollars, Keer said.

D'ANNUNZIO BIDS FAREWELL TO FIUME AFTER SPEECH

Trieste, Jan. 20.—Gabriele d'Annunzio left Fiume yesterday morning by auto. His departure was pathetic. The poet made a long speech in the Council Hall and Dr. Antonio Grossich, the provisional governor, replied.

The stores were closed, and there was a great public demonstration.

FRANCE ALL SET FOR PARLEY OF ALLIED POWERS

Paris, Jan. 20.—With Italy and Belgium yet to be heard from, the French government has gone ahead and set the stage for the supreme council meeting Monday. In a statement Premier Briand affirms the readiness of his Cabinet to meet all interpellations in the chamber of deputies tomorrow. He declared all questions had been adjusted with perfect accord, and that his ministry was tuned and primed for heckling on both external and internal policies.

Other than this, the premier has decided to wait on a confidence vote from Parliament before publicly announcing how he will solve the financial problems of France.

It is currently reported that the allied conference will last ten days, Premier Lloyd George and Winston Churchill attending, and Count Sforza probably representing Premier Giolotti.

The conference is expected to take up disarmament, reparations, the status of Austria, and the formation of a unified Near East policy with relation to the treaty of Sevres. It is recognized that Austria cannot be left to starve any longer; that it must either join with Bavaria—that is, Germany, or fall into the Soviet whirlpool. It generally is regarded that Constantine will be left in statu quo.

WHISKY IN GRAPEFRUIT FOUND BY DRY AGENTS

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 20.—After waiting three days for a claimant to appear for a shipment of grapefruit from Miami, Fla., Federal agents here yesterday confiscated more than 200 cases of whisky concealed in the consignment.

The liquor was smuggled into Miami from Cuba, the officers said.

"Get busy and sell!"
Said the Sales Manager

IT was at the recent monthly sales conference of the C—M—Company, that the words "buyers' market" were explained in their full meaning to the salesmen; and the necessity for immediate high calibre salesmanship emphasized.

"but remember," he continued

"you can never sell with 100% efficiency without ammunition, and that ammunition is PRINTED SALESMANSHIP—material that prepares the road for your visit and leaves a reminder of your work behind you—in other words, direct-by-mail advertising.

"If you are not supplied with this sort of ammunition, demand it!"

The famous French "Seventy-five" to be effective had as great a need for good shells as a salesman for carefully prepared printed advertising.

We are always ready to confer with you on the part that we can play in helping your sales force. A phone call or a request by mail will surely result in a profitable discussion of your own selling problems.

NEW O'CALLAGHAN DECISION UPSETS IMMIGRANT RULE

President Wilson has taken a hand in the O'Callaghan case. As a result of a conference at the White House following Tuesday's Cabinet meeting, Secretary of Labor Wilson yesterday made public a memorandum requiring the earliest possible reshipment of the Irish mayor and setting forth new regulations for the further handling of stowaways, in which it is provided that the State Department in the future shall be immediately informed of the arrival of such immigrants.

This memorandum represents a technical victory for the Department of State and is a climax to the fight between the Labor and State departments which was waged during the last week.

In the case of O'Callaghan, the Labor Department had adjusted that he was a seaman, having been found as a stowaway aboard the steamship West Cannon and put to work by the master of the vessel. He was paroled in the custody of his attorneys. Last Saturday it was ordered that he immediately report to the immigration officers at Norfolk, Va., his port of entry, and that his parole be canceled. His attorneys were yesterday notified to turn him over, but thus far he has not been surrendered to the authorities.

Negro Confesses Murder of Nurse At Navy Academy

Annapolis, Jan. 20.— Harry J Brown, negro navy deserter confessed yesterday that he murdered Miss Harriet M. Kavanaugh, Naval Academy Hospital nurse, whose battered body was discovered in the Academy grounds late Friday night. Robbery was the sole motive, he said, and he had attempted no other crime.

The confession followed an all night grilling. Brown was arrested in Baltimore Sunday night on a technical charge of desertion. He had been absent from the Academy, where he had been employed as a mess attendant, since December 22. He had all but convinced the authorities that he had not been in Annapolis on the night of the murder. But yesterday his alibi was broken down, and the investigators became convinced he was guilty.

Questioned throughout the night and all morning, the negro broke down at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and told the complete story. Afterwards, when the confession had been put in writing he signed it in the presence of his counsel.

Jovie Leads Ex-Husband To Bring Alienation Suit

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 20.—A moving picture showing local fun-seekers celebrating New Year's Eve in a hotel led to an investigation which caused Oren W. Page, a railroad man, to bring suit for $20,000 against Harley H. Sounders, owner of a kitchenette apartment, for alienation of the affections of his former wife, Mrs. Jessie Page.

Page and his wife were divorced in May, 1919. The cause of his wife's action puzzled Page, according to his attorney, until he saw the New Year's Eve movie in a downtown theatre Thereupon he began to study the matter more closely and finally concluded that Sounders was the cause of his broken home.

Page charges that Sounders and Mrs. Page met in Chicago and in California and that they were frequently together in the hotel of which Sounders is proprietor.

P. R. R. Orders Further 10 Per Cent Reduction

Philadelphia, Jan. 20.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company instructed today all departments throughout the system to effect a further reduction in expenses of 10 per cent. as compared with the expenses in November, 1920. This is in addition to the 10 per cent. reduction ordered when the retrenchment campaign was started last month and which already has resulted in the laying off of approximately 30,000 men in the four regions of the system. Continued falling off of business was given as the reason for yesterday's action. Freight traffic has declined 20 to 22 per cent. as compared with the early fall, the company said.

Infinite Variety Fails Wilson In Choice of National Tree

Washington, Jan. 20.—American forests are so rich with infinite variety, that President Wilson is unable to make a choice for a national tree, he wrote yesterday to the American Forestry Association, which is compiling a national referendum as to what tree best represents America.

"Speaking for myself," said the President, "I find that I am quite unable to choose amongst the infinite variety and richness of American forests."

Do You Want To Force Prices Up Again?

YOU KNOW Scores of factories are closing because of lack of orders. Almost before you realize it, merchandise will be scarce and hard to get. Reduced output and limited supply, then, will put prices UP again. When factories re-open it will take months to catch up with renewed demand.

If You Put Off Buying The Things You Need You Help Put Up Prices and Increase The Cost Of Living

The time to buy has come. Goods are being sold at a loss in many cases. Prices have reached rock-bottom.

Buy the things you need. Help keep the factories going and the workers busy. If you put off buying the dry goods, clothes, shoes, hats, furniture and other things you'll want and need you'll CAUSE PRICES TO CLIMB AGAIN and cause widespread unemployment.

The Alexandria stores listed below offer worthy merchandise at lowest prices under present conditions. You'll find real bargains offered daily in our newspaper and other advertisements.
